

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my distinct pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for David Lacroix. As his supervisor, I am in the unique position of being able to observe on a daily basis, David's creative eye for all types of multimedia. He is an active listener and always responds positively to customers' needs and demands.

In a fast-paced environment, David can multitask, manage, delegate, and balance several projects at a time. As a teamplayer, he works well with others whether he is in a lead position or as a member of the production team. David is particularly adept at problem solving and troubleshooting, especially when needed for technology glitches and equipment failures.

In addition, I am impressed with his ability to expertly reorganize the office and warehouse spaces when new projects have begun. I am confident that David's intelligence, work ethic, and design talent will be a valuable asset to any company.

As an essential member of any creative team, I strongly recommend David Lacroix. This recommendation comes without reservation. If you have any questions feel free to contact me any time.

Sincerely,
